Directions: Please visit the Quartz Valley Indian Reservation (QVIR) website and utilize it to answer the following questions. Answer each question in complete sentences.

1. What is the QVIR's mission? Please state in your own words and indicate where you found that information.

The QVIR's mission is to protect and enhance the land that we occupy: focusing on the air, water, and soil. This information can be found on the home page and on the page titled "About QVIR."

2. Where can I find the Constitution and By-Laws of QVIR?

The Constitution and By-Laws can be found on the "About QVIR" page.

3. What are the three departments QVIR currently has?

The three QVIR departments are QVIR Administration, the Tribal Clinic, and Housing Authority.

4. What tribal programs are offered?

The following tribal programs are offered: Culture, Education and Tribal Services, Burial Assistance, and Enrollment.

5. Why is Culture Camp significant?

Culture Camp is significant because it is a camp that takes place during the summer and is filled with rich cultural activities that are reflective of traditions that are shared from generation to generation. It is also a time in which kids are taught vital lessons and it is a way for the community to come together.
